Want to know more about Point2 Agent? We can help!

2010 is shaping up to be a great year for education services and resources for Point2 Agent members. Not only did the Education Team celebrate the 1st birthday of our website, www.Point2AgentEducation.com, but we've also been working on a number of updates to the educational resources available.

We've been busy updating our website look and feel to make it easier for members to navigate and find the specific resources that will benefit them. The Training Videos have been updated and we've increased the number available to you, so that you can see and hear a member of our Education Team walk through all aspects of Point2 Agent.

We've also modified our Education Session schedule to break Sessions into Beginner, Intermediate, and Advanced topics. This will provide more of a plan and educational path for future education. In doing so, the number of Education Session offerings has increased. This provides potential attendees more choice as to when they can join us. It also provides the opportunity to modify the Sessions to meet the specific needs of the Point2 Agent community.
